Mentoring process is one of the best ways to learn and develop and I enjoy helping my juniors.
Mentoring is a job of responsibility, but at the same time it's also fun. It was a great experience to pass on knowledge and accounts of college life you've already had. However online mentoring is not a sustainable choice for a long term goal, nothing can match the vibrations you get during offline teaching or mentoring for that matter.
It is said that sharing the knowledge increases our own knowledge. Clearing other's doubt (in this sense) makes us explore the topic more effectively than previous. Same happened.
I discovered new ways to help others.
Many things
Leadership Quality
I gained a lot of new experience and make new friends. It also enhances leadership quality and confidence.
Mentoring sessions allow us a two way learning process where both mentors and mentees get benefitted. It's a convenient and effective way to clear out any questions , academic or other.

I have learned that how to communicate with your juniors and how to clear their doubts
It's wonderful experience Being a student u know what are difficulties in online session u face it's same type of difficulties everyone having and u overcome all sorts of problem and your valuable experience u give to all your enthusiastic junior U just talk to Junior solve their problem help them without even knowing their face without even talking to them face to face What I learn from that point to help someone u need not need to be know that very person If it's in your circumference area then u can do /help them U learn a lot from your junior which we forget as we grow up not only in study but in every aspect Thanks u

Confidence for making conversations with new people and helping them.
This was my first experience being a mentor and i think i gave my best to the assigned work.
It was a new experience. I learnt how to give the best and help to my mentees with the limited resources available and make the best of each of them.
Development more strong leadership quality. While making mentees understand the concept mine concepts got revised and strong. Overall it was good experience.
It's wow can't explain
Experience gained
I think it was a great opportunity for all the mentors to learn so much through this journey. I believe it was not only helpful for the mentees but also for the mentors because they imbibed some really good qualities such as management skills, teaching skills, empathy, and of course leadership skills. This journey taught us a lot and was truly enlightening.
Leadership qualities, the courage to speak in front of public
I have learn many things think like how to motivate some one and it also enhance my communication skills.
Knowledge, and i use to teach them so, I got some experience of teaching
Leadership skills
The activity helped me boost self confidence, improved my coaching and leadership skills and made me work harder. It was a wonderful experience.
I gained that it's not even that difficult to teach online than it looks like. It just the way is different comparatively to the mentoring you do face to face.
Help to understand better..
One of the benefits of being a mentor is the influx of fresh ideas from your mentee. Your colleague will inject new energy into your classes. Don't feel threatened, as new approaches revitalize what you already do well. A new perspective helps you imagine different possibilities...You develop strong leadership skills, gain new perspectives, and the lessons you teach can also serve as reminders to yourself to follow your own good advice!
Confidence n many more
Different perception of mentees related to the topics. Got challenged every time. Every time they had any queries I was nervous a bit thinking if will be able to answer them correctly or not.

I am very confident for to my mentees
It was a new and great experience for me . I feel thankful to teachers for choosing me . I did help the mentees in possible ways besides my family faced Covid and isolation. Thank you.
I m very happy that I got this experience and I m very happy that I have helped and I have got to learn something, I have got some knowledge really thank you for being a mentor.
