Effective Business Communication Case Study

Question

Task:

Case study: A multi-national organisation operates in various countries including Australia, Vietnam, India, Oman, and Nigeria. The organisation manufactures and distributes agricultural equipment to local and international clients. In total the organisation has 8,000 employees in five countries and more than 1 million customers worldwide. The head office is based in Australia. In recent years the organisation is facing several communication challenges.

They include:

1. Ineffective use of social media such as blogs, wikis, social networks to support teams in sharing ideas, building knowledge bases and task management.
2. Lack of quality feedback from clients on ways to improve product quality and service delivery
3. Misunderstandings and lack of trust based upon intercultural communication issues in different contexts

Your manager has asked you to develop strategies and plans to improve communication at all levels. In order to complete this task, you will need to review relevant academic literature and case studies to provide evidence and examples.

Business Management

1) Ashutosh Goenka was working in 'Axe Ltd.', a company manufacturing air purifiers. He found that the profits has started declining from the last six months. Profit has an implication for the survival of the firm, so he analysed the business environment to find out the reasons for this decline.

1. Identify the level of management at which Ashutosh Goenka was working.
2. State three other functions being performed by Ashutosh Goenka.

2) Rishitosh Mukerjee has recently joined AMV Ltd, a company manufacturing refrigerators. He found that his department was under-staffed and other departments were not cooperating with his department for smooth functioning of the organisation. Therefore, he ensured that his department has the required number of employees and its cooperation with other departments is improved.

1. Identify the level at which Rishitosh Mukerjee was working.
2. Also, state three more functions required to be performed by Rishitosh Mukerjee at this level.

3) Aapka Vidyalaya' believes in the holistic development of students and encourages team building through a mix of curricular, co-curricular and sports activities. On its Founder's Day, a stage performance had to be put up. A committee of ten prefects was constituted to plan different aspects of the function. They all decided to use recycled paper for decoration. There was a spirit of unity and harmony and all the members supported each other. With mutual trust and a sense of belonging, the programme was systematically planned and executed. Kartik, one of the prefects, realised that the group had unknowingly applied one of the principles of management while planning and executing the programme. He was so inspired by the success of this function that he asked his father to apply the same principle in his business. His father replied that he was already using this principle.

- a) Identify the principle of management applied for the success of the programme.
- b) State any two features of management highlighted in the above paragraph.

- c) Identify any two values which 'Aapka Vidyalaya' communicated to society.

Economics

A) Why is demand for salt inelastic? Salt has no close substitute & moreover a household has to share a negligible part of his entire budget. Therefore, even in spite of increase in price of salt its demand will not be affected. However, demand for a particular brand of toothpaste is comparatively more elastic as there are many brands of toothpaste available in the market, so the consumers can switch over to any other brand in case of hike in the price of a particular brand of toothpaste.

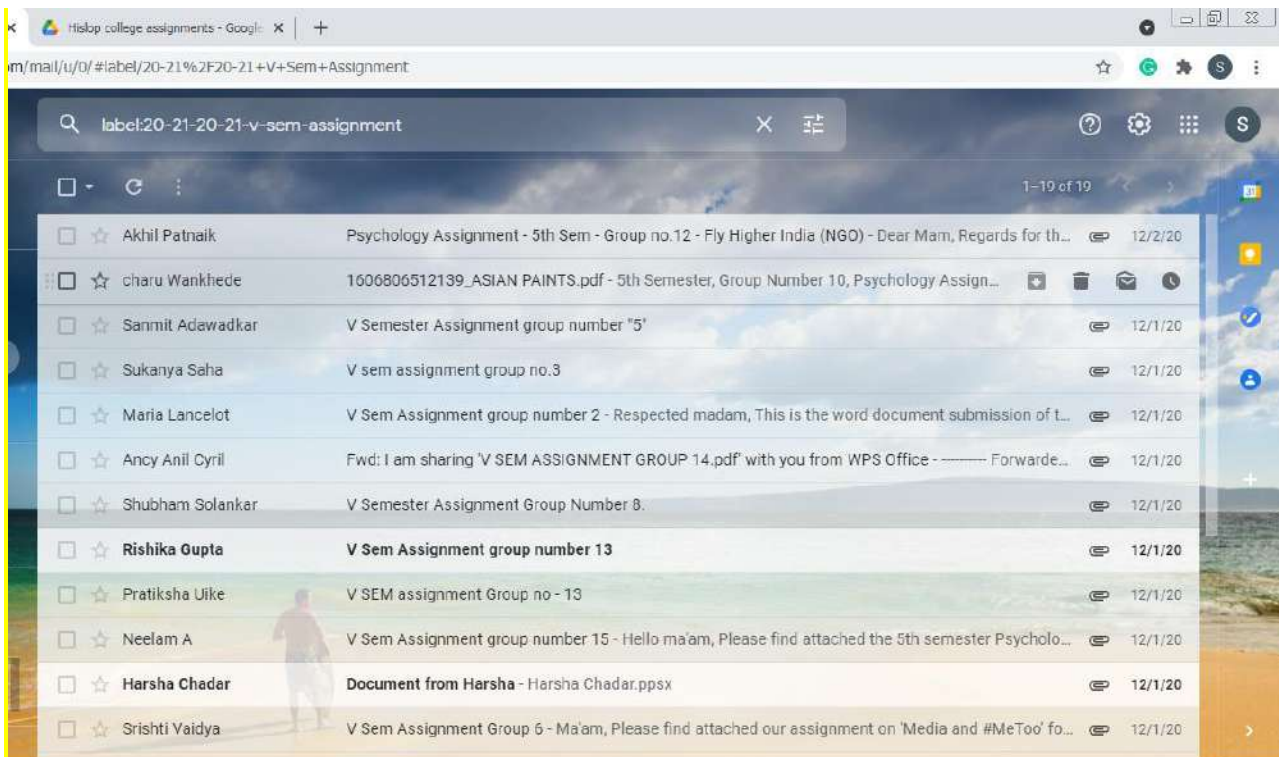

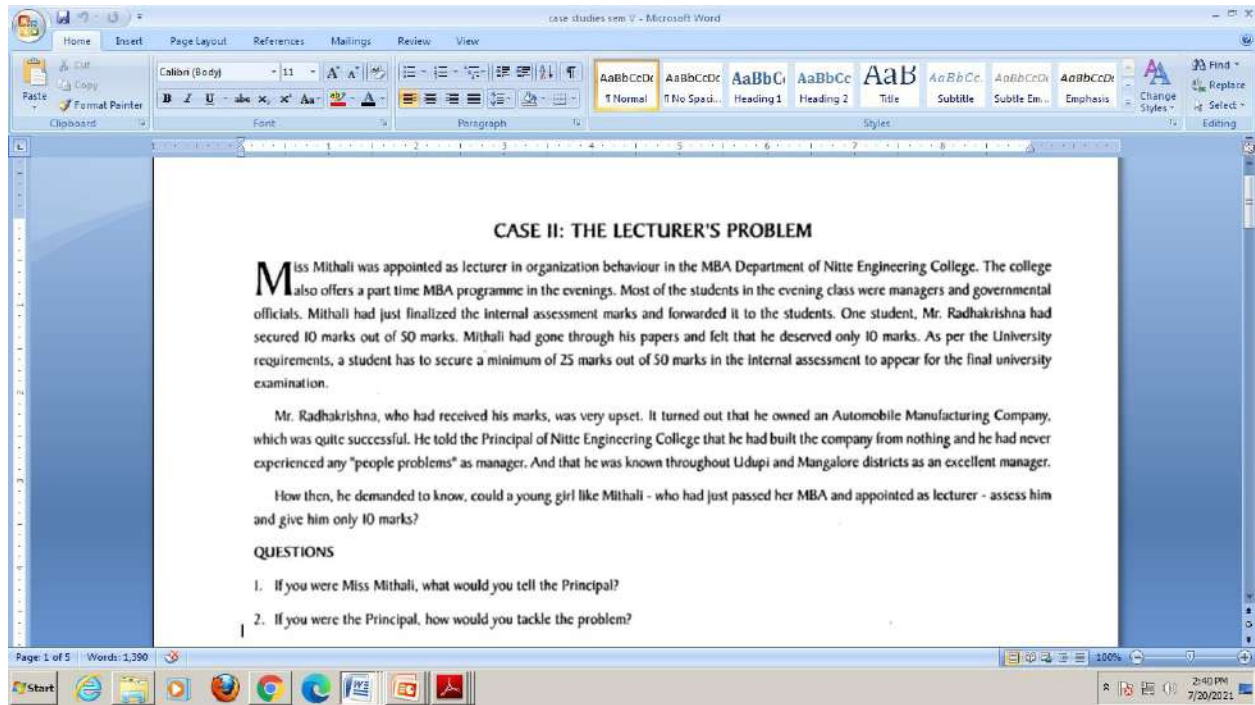

1. Which factors according to above passage are responsible for price elasticity of demand?
2. Is the demand for a luxury item elastic? Why?
3. Name some commodities, which have small number of substitutes.
4. What do you think about the price elasticity of demand for a particular brand of match box? Is it elastic or inelastic? Explain.
