Event Report for 2017-2018

Name of the event: Workshop on Human Values

Date and Time: 10th February to 5th March, 2018; 11:00 am

Venue: 105

Objective: To inculcate Human Values among all the students

Teacher In charge: Mr. Jijo Pious

No. of student participants: 255

Detail Report:

Department of CMC organized a 1 month workshop on "Human Values". The workshop was conducted for all the students of BBA, BCCA, MCM and PGDCCA. The workshop was conducted by Mr. Jijo Pious on every Friday and Saturday. A reference book of Human Values published by AIACHE, New Delhi was given to all the participants for further reading.

The workshop was conducted to inculcate Human Values amongst the students. It focused on the problems and challenges that are faced by each student at individual, family, societal and environmental levels. This workshop mainly dealt about issues related to individual's happiness, welfare, aspirations, goals and success in life.

The main objective of this workshop was to sensitize students about taking decisions regarding what is right for us as an individual as well as for the environment. Decision making skills in context with human values principles specially in the present scenario of today's world, where we are, causing harm to our self, society and nature and running towards materialistic aspirations..

The basic human aspiration is continuity of happiness and prosperity. This is facilitated and ensured through human society. To ensure human society, it is essential to have an understanding of the basic reality. The topics discussed were:

1. Oneself – College – Life and values
2. India and me
3. Transformation of Self

4. Life Enrichment Skills
5. Dynamics of inter-personal relationships
6. Sexuality and Gender
7. Marriage and Contentment
8. Societal concerns and Challenges
9. Valuable Quotes on Values

All the participants benefitted from the workshop and discussed about the self realization at the end. They also shared their changed perception on relationship with self, society, nature and with their family and near and dear ones. This workshop mainly focused on the relationship building aspect of human beings with the other individual and its duty towards the country and nature.

Date: 29 August,18

Venue: Shalom

Organizer: Human Rights and Equal Opportunity Cell

Total no. of students and teachers attended the session: 166

Session on: 'Human Values: Rights and Opportunities'

The Human Rights and Equal Opportunities Cell of Hislop College organized a workshop on 29 August,18, Wednesday on 'Human Values: Rights and Opportunities' based on the curriculum by Emory University, USA and the foundation for Universal Responsibility of His Holiness the Dalai Lama. The resource person was an alumnus of the institution, Mr. Anando Ghosh, a PG pursuer at SOAS, UK. The workshop was very successful, with a footfall of 166 students, with a brilliant conceptualization. The workshop included a series of short films and videos, ad-lib theatre, presentations and vocal games, all based on human values. The different modules comprised of Human Values and Religion, Human Values and Gender, Human Values and Culture, Human Values and youth, Human Values and duties and so on. A core universal value chart of compassion, empathy, kindness, impartiality, ethical mindfulness, emotional awareness, gratitude and endearment, self-acceptance, forgiveness and justice, contentment and impartiality was drafted and distributed to the students.
