ROTARACT CLUB OF HISLOP COLLEGE

Title: Rakshabandhan at Jeevandhara

Thursday, 18th August, 2016

Objective : To celebrate Rakshabandhan with the mentally challenged children at Jeevandhara.

"Be a gift to the World" keeping in mind the notion, to bring smile by small gestures and make the underprivileged happy. We the Rotaractors of Hislop College decided to celebrate RakshaBandhan with the specially gifted children of Jeevan Dhara Ashram. A total of 28 Rotaractors were present at the Ashram. The Rotaractors dressed in their traditional attires brought with them nicely decorated pooja thaali with Rakhis, Kumkum, sweets, diya, etc.

The Rotaractors - Rtr Khyati Golchha, Rtr Bhawerlal Sharma, Rtr Tauhid Sheikh, Rtr. Ishita Saunders, Rtr Sanskriti Shukla, Rtr Anjali Nair, Rtr. Rashi Khandelwal, Rtr. Mehek Dadwani, Rtr. Aradhya Naidu, Rtr Altamash Ali, Rtr Ayushi Jain, Rtr Aryan Naidu, Rtr Rohan Francis, Rtr Aman Kasar, Rtr Khushbu Agarwal, Rtr Rohit Agutale, Rtr Ketaki Ikhankar, Rtr Trevor Dass, Rtr Vinisha Koche, Rtr Rosalia George, Rtr. Nikhil Nikam, Rtr. Dhruvjeet Roy and Rtr. Shraddha Fiske reached the organisation. Ex-Rotaractors Mr Parag Raut, Mr Sanaiel Ahmed, Mr Rahul Mahajan, Mr Murli Boga and Mr Durgaprasad Patri were also present.

The Rotaractors tied Rakhi to the inmates and distributed chocolates and balloons to the children. The inmates thoroughly enjoyed.. Some of the inmates danced with joy and happiness. The project concluded with the National Anthem.

A special thanks to our teacher-in-charge Jigisha Naidu ma'am for supporting and guiding us throughout the event. This event would not have been possible without her support.

Title: Rakshabandhan with the Brave sons of India.

Thursday, 18th August, 2016

Objective : To express our gratitude and love to the soldiers of our country.

Soldiers who protect us from the threats of the world, who are awake every second and every minute at the border so that the civilians can sleep peacefully, who put their lives on line to protect ours. To thank them for their services and to show our gratitude and respect to them, we the Rotaractors of Hislop College sent 100 Rakhis's along with 100 message cards to the brave soldiers of our nation. The messages were written by 91 Rotaractors and the teachers of the college and were sent to the Kamptee Army base of Nagpur.

A special thanks to our teacher-in-charge Jigisha Naidu ma'am for supporting and guiding us throughout the event. This event would not have been possible without her support.
