The questionnaire covered diverse aspects such as teaching quality, the organization of extra and remedial classes for slow learners, teachers' preparedness, and evaluation methods. Additionally, students were invited to share their opinions on the college's infrastructure and overall campus ambiance.

The overall satisfaction level with the teaching-learning experience stood at 3.65 on the four-point scale.

The student feedback also covered various aspects of the college infrastructure and general ambience, evaluated on a four-point scale.
